About Python Conference Delhi

Python Conference Delhi is the premier conference in India that brings together Developers, Experts, Researchers, Scientists, Enthusiasts, Companies dealing in python.

Python Conference Delhi is completely volunteer run event, managed by PyDelhi (https://pydelhi.org/) python users group Delhi.

Why You Should Sponsor

● By sponsoring the conference, your organization will be better connected to the Python community. If looking to hire people then you get access to the 500+ people coming to the conference. The attendees at the conference represent a broad spectrum of talented and experienced software engineers, designers, project and product managers, scientists, researchers, artists as well as others who are committed to improving the quality and craftsmanship in the field of software engineering.

● Are you a Python company? You get a platform to spread the word about your product and services and interact with all the prospective leads that you would otherwise be hard pressed to find under one roof.

● Your sponsorship helps keep Python Conference Delhi affordable and accessible to the widest possible audience.

Previous Events

PyDelhi group behind this conference has held a lot of events prior to this, here is a sample of the things they are known for. http://www.meetup.com/pydelhi/

They have organised 18+ workshops in the last year alone, for college students, workshops for school students, tech talks from people in the industry who are building interesting tools/products or solving problems. Programs like https://pychill.fossevents.in/, whenever they happen.

Regular bi monthly meetups with a healthy strength of 80+ people.
